

Code of Conduct Concerning Intellectual Property

- First Principle: Respect the intellectual property of CRD Association (hereinafter referred to as “the Association”) and prevent it from being infringed upon from outside.
- Second Principle: Do not infringe on the intellectual property of others.
- Third Principle: Try to expand the Association’s intellectual property by being intellectually imaginative and accumulating novel ideas.
- Fourth Principle: Utilize the intellectual property of the Association as management resources.

April 2, 2012
(Revised on June 24, 2014)

CRD Association